

Withholding Requirements on Payments and Awards to International Students

Income tax laws require withholding of federal income tax on certain payments to international students. Exemptions processed for required tuition and fees, including required ~~books~~ and course materials, are