

1. Consideration for nomination should be based on the individual's contribution to his/her field of endeavor or to society in general. Individuals nominated should be of such outstanding character and distinction that their acceptance of such a degree would honor both Louisiana State University and the campus presenting the award.
2. Individuals who have made substantial contributions to the development of the University are eligible. LSU Policy 2015-152 Tm (2.)722
3. Current public office holders or candidates for office other than a sitting President are not eligible.
4. Current members of the LSU Board of Supervisors are not eligible and past members are not eligible until a period of two years has elapsed.

B. Procedures for selection

1. Nominations should originate from the faculty of a college or school or a campuswide committee and be forwarded, with appropriate administrative endorsement, through normal academic channels to the President. The President will submit the nomination to the Executive Vice President and Provost, the University Committee on Awarding of Honorary Degrees and the members of the Board of Supervisors for review. Recommended candidates will then be submitted to the full Board.
2. In order to be placed on the Board of Supervisors Agenda, honorary degree nominations must be submitted to the President no later than six (6) weeks prior to the appropriate Board meeting.
