Regarding Case Number: 2017012302

Dear Alpha Gamma Rho,

Based on the information presented and discussed, the Alpha Epsilon chapter of Alpha Gamma Rho Fraternity accepts Responsibility for their actions, which constituted a violation(s) of LSU's Code of 4.) The Chapter must host and fund a member of the AGR National Fraternity staff, with agreement from the AGR National Fraternity, for pre-recruitment, recruitment and the first week of class, and initiation week for Fall 2018 to ensure compliance with all policies.

5.) The Chapter must comply with the national organization's bid to initiation national policy as well as University policies.

6.) The Chapter must become an alcohol-free facility immediately. The chapter may petition after January 1st, 2019 to host approved events with alcohol at the fraternity house. The chapter may host one non-alcoholic event in fall 2018, with approval from Greek Life. The chapter will develop a plan for compliance and how the chapter will utilize their internal judicial process to address any violations. The plan should be provided to Greek Life and Student Advocacy & Accountability no later than February 1st, 2018

7.) The Chapter may not tailgate as a chapter on campus in Fall 2018, or be associated as a chapter with an alumni tailgate.

8.) The fall 2017 prospective members will be initiated following their participation in an educational program regarding the member experience of Alpha Gamma Rho, approved by the National organization led by a national representative. Verification and documentation regarding date, time, place, person, attendance and proposed initiation due to Greek Life and Student Advocacy & Accountability weeks prior to proposed initiation.

9.) The Chapter will provide the revised Prospective Member Program to AGR National Fraternity by April 1, 2018 for approval and to Greek Life no later than May 1, 2018 for review and feedback. The program shall include a set of regulations for the program, the expectations of the prospects, the requirements for initiation, and a Chapter calendar that details the dates and description of events for Fall 2018. A chapter advisor must be present for each activity/event/ceremony.

10.) The Chapter's Prospective Member program will be reviewed again in July 2019 by Greek Life and AGR National Fraternity to ensure sustainability.

11.) The Chapter will fund a qualified facilitator to discuss hazing and alcohol as it relates to policy compliance at a chapter retreat of not less than 3 hours. 90% of the chapter members must be in attendance. Facilitator to be secured by the chapter and the national organization by February 1, 2018 and must be conducted by May 1, 2018 with documentation submitted to Greek Life and Student Advocacy & Accountability by May 15th, 2018

12.) The Chapter must meet a minimum standards on the Greek Assessment process by December 31, 2018
