

reasons including illness, family emergency, and religious obligations. You should information. Beginning with your fourth unexcused absence your final grade will drop by 2 points, per unexcused absence, up to ten full points. Conversely, if you limit your unexcused absences to three or fewer you will earn ten full points of your final grade.

found online, as it pertains to academic dishonesty. Students who are suspected of plagiarism or cheating will be referred to the Office of Student Advocacy and Accountability for an investigation and possible penalty. This investigation could result in a zero for the assignment in question or a failing grade for the course. A second violation (for your full LSU career, not only in this course) could result in a suspension or expulsion from the university. If you plagiarize or cheat on an assignment I am required to report the matter. The process is out of my jurisdiction going forward. Please keep this in mind and realize that it does not matter why you cheat or plagiarize, doing so for any reason and under any conditions will trigger the

14: L and S, Ch. 8
16: The principle of judicial review
18: A New Deal Shift
21: 23: 25:
28: Issues of race
30: The Right to privacy

1: Developments in Criminal Justice
4: Eisenhower and Little Rock, an introduction to presidential crisis management 6: President as rhetorical leader
8: President as leader of domestic affairs 11: President as chief diplomat
13: The growth of the Executive Office of the President (EOP)
15: Washington, Adams, and Jefferson on foreign affairs
18: Wilsonian Idealism and the balance of power in Europe
20: Early Cold War
22: Later Cold War
25: Legacy of the Cold War
27: Post 9/11
29: