Course, University, and Campus Policies

Office Hours:

My office is in Stubbs, 318 and my office hours will be 11:30 to 1:20 on Mondays. I will also be available other times by appointment. I encourage you to come and see me about any problems you may have during the course of the semester. The earlier you come to see me, the better.

Make-up Exams:

Make-up exams will not be granted, except for the situations of illness with proper documentation, serious personal difficulties, or excuses granted by the university administration. The most important thing is that you inform me, in advance if possible, and if not, immediately thereafter, when you will be missing an exam.

E-mail/Electronic Communication Policy:

Notifications for the class will be sent to your LSU e-mail address. If you do not check your LSU e-mail account regularly, or have it set-up to be forwarded to your preferred e-mail account, you may not get the message. Please check your LSU e-mail (or the e-mail address it forwards to) and Moodle before coming

Disability Services:

According to the our General Catalog, “The Office of Disability Services assists students in identifying and developing accommodations and services to help over-come barriers to the achievement of personal and academic goals. Services are provided for students with temporary or permanent disabilities. Accommodations and services are based on the individual student's disability-based need.” If you are seeking classroom accommodations under the Americans with Disabilities Act, you are required to register with Disability Services and discuss your accommodation needs with your instructor. Disability Services is located in 115 Johnston Hall. Phone is 225-578-5919: <http://students.lsu.edu/disability>.
