Discussion about student experiences, particularly relative to McMurtrie article. Suggestion was made that encouraging project/team work in ILC courses could be a way to enhance student experience. Discussed how to make ILC produce best value to students. Jackie pointed out that Moodle/Canva allows badges – potential way to illustrate ILC-

e. Meeting Schedule for Spring Semester

Based on polling, 4th Friday of month from 12-1pm should regularly allow the largest number of attendees; no date works for everyone. First meeting of Spring semester is January 26, 2024.

Note that committee members can bring their lunches to these noon meetings. Action item for next meeting: none.

*It is intended that public comments may be made (1) when they relate to a matter on the agenda and (2) when individuals desiring to make public comments have registered at least one hour prior to the meeting by emailing facultysenate@lsu.edu. When registering, individuals should identify themselves; the group they are representing, if appropriate; and the topic on which they would like to comment. To ensure that the meeting is conducted in an efficient manner, each individual will be limited to 3 minutes for their public comments and the President reserves the right to limit the total number of public comments if necessary.
