

United States Department of Agriculture - National Institute of Food & Agriculture (USDA-NIFA) Responsible Conduct of Research Training Certification

USDA's NIFA requires training in responsible conduct of research for program directors, faculty, undergraduate students, graduate students, postdoctoral researchers and any staff participating in the research project. NIFA requires that documentation of training be maintained and that it is subject to NIFA review upon request. See page 5 of the February 2014 Terms and Conditions (http://www.nsf.gov/pubs/policydocs/rtc/agencyspecifics/nifa_213.pdf).

Complete the information below with all participants in your study. Then return this signed form with the training completion certificate(s) of all participants including the PI, to the Office of Research & Economic Development.
