

5. The assent form should be signed by a witness (parent/guardian or a third party). When a witness is not available, the child should be present to attest to the entire consent process. The child should sign the assent form if judged to be able to do so.