which are clear, non-nebulous and legally defensible by giving an example statement on DEI discussed for SACSOC reaccreditation process, and (xi) free speech and statements coming from the institution. In the subsequent discussion with President Tate many senators participated. They discussed better training for compliance with DEI and power-based violence and requested renewal of a relationship with a local nonprofit Sexual Trauma and Response (STAR). They also discussed details of enrollment management strategy, lack of monetary benefit for non-tenure track promotions, faculty salaries and merit raises, freedom of speech, and how LSU administration views Resolution 23-05.

The first item on the agenda was the first reading on the Resolution 23-05 " To Pursue Legislative Changes that Remove the Irrevocability of Optional Retirement Plan Enrollment" sponsored by the Faculty Senate
