Another co-worker mentioned that, "from the first day that I transferred to Shipping and Receiving, she was warm and welcoming. I really miss her popping in my office and saying "Happy Friday!" Sometimes she would just come into chat, I do miss that, and I do miss her. God Bless and welcome Sandra and her children.

David and Deborah Taylor, Sandra's parents, and her brother, Stephen, accepted the flag which was flown on September 15, 2022, over the Parade Grounds in her honor.

PRESENTATION OF FLAG TO THE FAMILY OF RICKY JACKSON

President Tammy Millican announced that the Staff Senate would like to present the flag honoring Mr. Ricky Jackson.

Ricky served as a Plaster Master for Residential Life. He started off working with a contractor at LSU, but became an LSU staff member.

Ricky Jackson was a loving father of 5 children 14 grandchildren. In addition, a wonderful husband to his wife Lizabeth Jackson whom she loved him so dearly. He also leaves to cherish in his memories one brother, David Jackson and many relatives and friends.

His wife, Mrs. Lizabeth Jackson, said that she allowed him to have a second wife, which was LSU. Channing Cox, his supervisor said, "Ricky Jackson was always the first one at work. I cherished Ricky as my big brother-always. "

Joshua Smith said he was a loyal employee, a great friend, always dependable and part of the work family, always in good spirits. He was a great man. Karen Rockett, Director of Housing at Residential Life said, "Ricky Jackson was a kind and gentle soul in our Res Life maintenance department. He was quiet and always calm and always here for anything the students needed. His dedication and dependency, integrity and sweet spirit resonated throughout the team. He was that peaceful rock that helped maintain the serenity in an ever-changing organization. He just went with the flow and was flexible whenever he needed to be.

He was a master of his craft which is truly a lost art in today's world. Plaster is an uncommon use of material yet Mr. Ricky was a champion in manipulating. He is truly one that will be missed, not just for his skill but for his kindness."

Ricky Jackson always talked about how much he truly loved his Co-Workers.

The Jackson family wishes to thank LSU for everything that you've done for us and my Husband with truly sincere gratitude.

Flag was accepted by Lizabeth Jackson, their children, and other family members.

The flag was flown on October 15, 2022, over the Parade Grounds in his honor.
